

CENTENNIAL CAMPUS KICK-OFF

1908-2008

Wednesday, March 5, 2008

12:00 - 1:30 p.m.

Peabody Hall

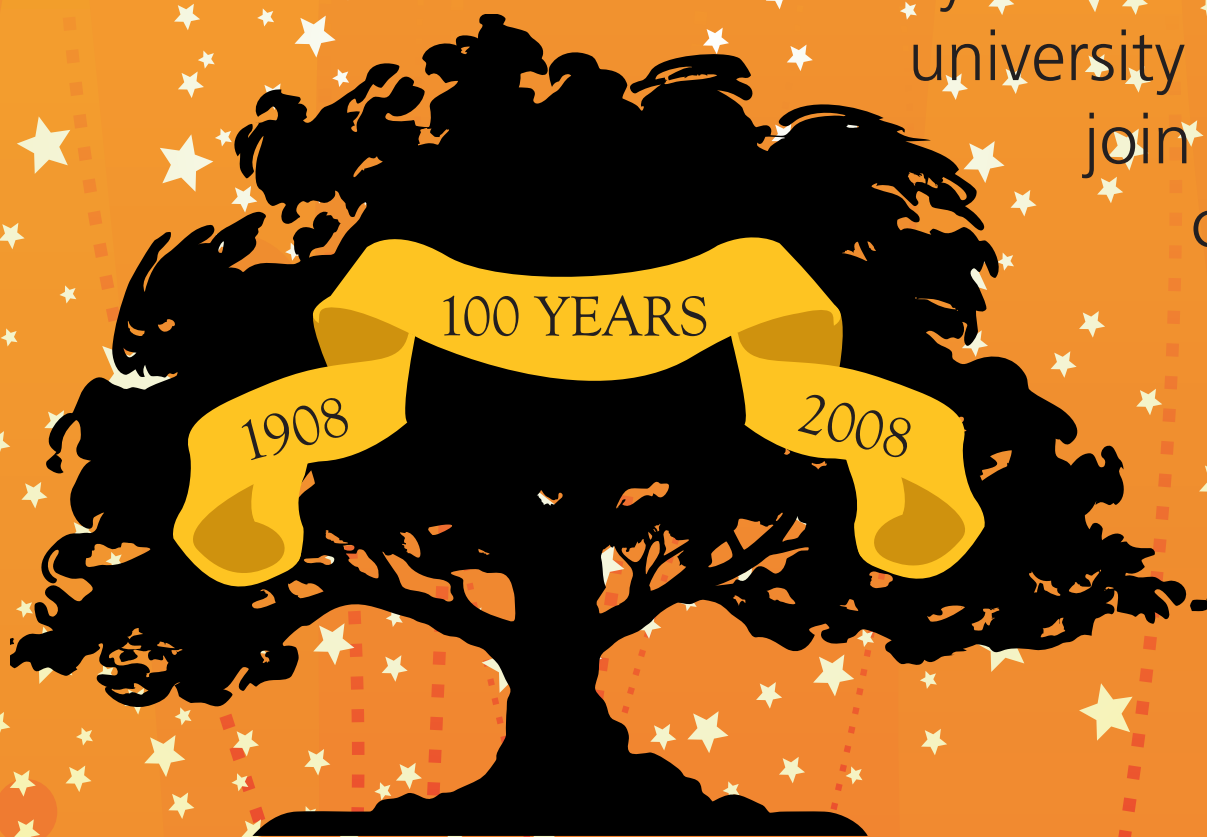

East Courtyard

To celebrate 100 years as a college, the LSU College of Education and its student organizations are hosting a campus-wide centennial celebration on Wednesday, March 5, 2008, from 12:00 - 1:30 p.m. at the East Courtyard of Peabody Hall.

Festivities will include free jambalaya and beverages, along with the symbolic planting of a College of Education centennial oak tree.

College of Education Dean M. Jayne Fleener invites the university community to join in this campus celebration: "As we embark on our landmark year, please join us in a celebration of our past and commitment to an engaged future."
